25X1A

1. The following two persons from the Security Section of the Project I believe deserve special mention for their efforts in accomplishing their mission in an outstanding manner:

25X1A

a. [redacted] has clearly shown the qualities of leadership, maturity and devotion to duty that make a man a most valuable asset as a supervisor. His stability under pressure, and judgement when called on to act without guidance both reflect a person with a promising future. His personal conduct and habits, in addition to his job performance, have made him highly respected not only by myself but also by members of his staff.

25X1A

b. The second person, [redacted] is a man who has the personal maturity that makes him a person to be held in high esteem by all who contact him. His honest, assured, straight-forward manner naturally inspires the confidence of men he works with and readily is recognized as a man who knows what he is doing. In addition, he has displayed the hard-to-find quality of being able to distinguish what is important. His personal conduct is above reproach.

25X1A

2. Both of the above men, who recently completed tours of duty with [redacted] are in an outstanding category, and should succeed in any assigned or chosen field of endeavor.
